

Rules and Regulations: 2011 Season

Please make sure that you have read and fully understand/agree to the following information. You will be held accountable to meet these conditions and you are required to sign off on them as part of your application form.

- Acceptance into the Makers' Market is subject to approval of the Committee.
- You are required to describe the type of work you will be selling as well as providing digital or printed images. The committee will be looking at the following factors: quality, variety, technique.
- The fee for a stall is for one 10x10 space only, please specify if you require other rentals from us at additional charge. We need to know your needs prior to the market to avoid unnecessary confusion on site and to guarantee that you have your ideal set up. We are making every effort to accommodate as many stallholders as possible and to be fair to everyone.
- Attendance by the "Maker" is required at the market; visitors expect to meet the person behind the product and demonstrations at a stall are welcome.
- There will be no substitutions for stallholders. Please let us know immediately if you are not able to attend the market so that your stall can be re-assigned.
- Failure to communicate your absence at a market will result in your forfeiting your fee for that day.
- On the day of the market, there will be no negotiating stall placement. Stalls will be assigned on the basis of the needs of the stallholder for electricity, etc at the discretion of the Site Manager.
- Set up and tear down times will be established prior to the market. Please respect the times announced, to be fair to stallholders and to ensure that the space is ready in time and your stall is open through advertised public hours.
- Failure to comply with any of the above policies may result in your being asked to leave the market.
- The stallholder indemnifies the Makers Market in respect of any claims for injury, loss of damage by any third party arising from the operations of the stallholder during the activities subject to this agreement
- The Stallholder will be liable for any damage to property of Christ's Church Cathedral or St Paul's Westdale.
- The Makers Market is not responsible for theft or damage of any items at any time
